PROSPECTUS OF THE

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT.

R. JACOBS, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

The great necessity existing in the central portion of this State for a Journal to advocate and support the cause of Democracy and Democratic principles, as well as to expose "Coon Hums," and "Hard Cider" influence, is too well known to the citizens of this and the adjacent counties to be reverted to by us at the present time. The campaign of 1840 is fresh in the memory of all of you; the result was disastrous and degrading to the Democracy of the United States, and will always be remembered as a dark spot upon the fair fame of Democratic principles.

The Presidential canvass for 1844, has now fairly opened—the crisis is near at hand, and it behooves the Democracy to be on the alert—to have their sentinels upon the outer walls to give the alarm of approaching danger, and avert the deadly shaft aimed at our political as well as civil liberty; and hurl from the high places of honor and trust, those political aspirants who were elevated by "Log Cabin" excitements, &c.; and prevent those Gladiatorial demagogues who are now in the political arena, and would "sell their birthright for a mess of porridge," or, in other words, would attempt to overthrow our free institutions, by saddling upon the people a United States Bank, from holding the reins of our Government.

The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will advocate and support the principles bequeathed to the Democracy by the immortal Jefferson, and sustained and acted upon by a Madison, and a Jackson, &c., &c., and will support for the Presidency, the nominee of the Democratic National Convention. PRINCIPLES NOT MEN, will receive the uncompromising support of the Editor. It will also contain the news of the day, both Foreign and Domestic, Literature, &c., &c.

We shall nail our flag to the mast, with the hope that the Democracy of Attala will come to the rescue, and give their undivided support to assist us in our enterprise. We do not undertake the publishing of a political Journal ignorant of the responsibility devolving upon us. We have, besides being a practical printer, had some experience in publishing, &c. The first number of the JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued on the first Saturday in January next, if sufficient support should be received to warrant us in the undertaking.

Kosciusko, Miss., Nov. 22, 1843.

TERMS.—The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued every Saturday morning, upon a Super-Royal sheet, and forwarded to subscribers at Three Dollars per annum, in advance.

The Mammoth Notion Revived!

The largest Folio Newspaper in the world.
For only $2 per year.

THE great revolution that is now going on in the publishing of books, by the prompt and extraordinarily cheap issues of all new and valuable or entertaining works, seems to do away in a very great measure, with the necessity or policy of publishing a newspaper in the Quarto or Octavo form. The subscriber has therefore concluded to discontinue the quarto edition of the Boston Notion, and hereafter that paper will be issued in the MAMMOTH FOLIO FORM.

A variety of new features will be introduced into the Notion, which we feel confident will make it highly attractive to every class of readers.

A Farmer's Department will be added, under which head we shall endeavor to give a valuable and seasonable collection of the best articles that appear in the leading Agricultural papers of this country and of England, the leading Agricultural papers of England being received at the office of the Notion by every steamer.

Sermons by a Loafer.—Under this head we shall give, each week, a humorous and satirical discourse upon the current topics of the day, fashionable humbugs and charlatans, and popular fallacies of every description.

The Literary Department will fully maintain its present high reputation. The best and earliest selections of Tales, Romances, and Light Miscellaneous Reading, will be given from the English and American Magazines, viz: "Blackwoods," "Tait's," "Fraser's," "Dublin University," "Bentley's," "Ainsworth's," "The New Monthly," and "The Metropolitan," "Southern Literary Messenger," "Knickerbocker," "Democratic Review," "Lady's Book," "Graham's Magazine," "Sargent's Magazine," &c., &c.

A Prices Current and The Markets will be two new features that will also be introduced into the Notion. Particular care will be taken to procure the earliest advices of Stocks, Banks, Money, &c., which will render our Prices Current of great value to the Farmer, Mechanic, and all business classes.

SUNDAY MORNING EDITION.
Hereafter we shall issue an edition of the Notion every Saturday night at 12 o'clock, which will contain all the news of Saturday, notices of Concerts, Lectures, &c., which occur on Saturday Evening, and all local intelligence which we can gather up to the hour of 12 o'clock, Saturday.

REDUCTION OF PRICES.—Hereafter we will send the Boston Notion, in clubs of five copies, for ten dollars per year, or five dollars for six months, cash in advance. Two copies, five dollars per year, or two dollars and fifty cents for six months, in advance. One copy, two dollars and fifty cents per year, or one dollar and twenty-five for six months, in advance—or three dollars per year, payable at the expiration of the year.

GEORGE ROBERTS,
Publisher Boston Notion.

Job Work

EXECUTED at this Office with neatness and despatch.
September 16.

A New Enterprise, By the former Editor of the Saturday Evening Post, and Saturday Courier.

COMPRISING the fruits of twenty years experience in the Newspaper business—the aid of the most distinguished newspaper writers of the day; a valuable Foreign Correspondence; with troops of Literary friends, and the determination to publish a newspaper for all classes, which shall not be surpassed.

Philadelphia Saturday Museum,

Of Knowledge, News and Amusement.

A Family Newspaper, neutral in politics—opposed to quackery, and devoted to the useful arts, education, morals, health and amusement. The tales, sketches, narratives, biographies, essays and poems, shall be of the first order; the best productions of the best writers of the day. Also articles on History, Astronomy, Chemistry, and the useful arts and sciences, with a liberal portion of light reading, anecdotes, wit and humor, making a varied, rich, and mirth-inspiring Ohio.

Life on the Ocean.—Furnishing narratives of sterling adventures at sea, showing the courage and heroism of the bold mariner, as He springs from his hammock, and flies to the deck.

Where amazement confronts him with images dire,
Wild winds and mad waves drive the vessel a wreck,
The masts fly in splinters; the shrouds are on fire.

Foreign and domestic news, Congressional proceedings, and a general view of all matters of interest or importance, will appear.

Pictorial embellishments, comprising maps, landscapes, architecture, portraits of distinguished personages, of both sexes. In these as well as in neatness of typography, the Museum shall not be surpassed.

Foreign Correspondence.—Arrangements have been completed for securing a regular foreign correspondence, more extensive and complete than has ever enriched the columns of an American newspaper.

Commercial.—The state of business, of stocks, prices of grain and flour, and descriptions of country produce, merchandise, &c., will be given from actual sales in Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Boston, &c.

Select and original gems from the best productions of the best writers of the day.

TO AGENTS.—Terms, Commissions, &c.

Any individual who will take the trouble to procure the names of his friends, and remit the funds, will be entitled to the commissions, which are at present, and will continue to be until further notice, more liberal by far than have yet been offered by any newspaper of real character or merit.

TERMS.—The Philadelphia Saturday Museum is published every week at two dollars per annum, as usual in advance, or three dollars at the end of the year. For twenty dollars, in current funds, sixteen copies of the newspaper will be forwarded, securely packed, to any part of the United States. Three copies for five dollars.—All orders and communications to be addressed, free of postage, to

THOS. C. CLARK & Co.
191 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

We shall be glad to exchange with newspapers that will oblige us by copying the above.

NEW YORK MIRROR.

EVERY number embellished with an original and exquisite design on Steel. Edited by George P. Morris: illustrated by J. G. Chapman, who is engaged exclusively for the work.

TERMS.—Three Dollars per annum—single numbers 64 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence, on his own account, the publication of a new series of the New York Mirror, in the octavo form, on an entirely novel and original plan, with a Steel Engraving in every number, and at the reduced price of $3 per annum, or 64c per copy.

The New York Mirror will appear with many striking and attractive features, distinguishing it from any other periodical; it will be published on new type, and fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on Steel, designed and etched by Chapman, illustrating the letter-press which it accompanies, and which it will invest with peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our extensive corps of correspondents—which embrace most of the talent of this country—we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials, and with such able few laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader, a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence. The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided.

The Mirror will be remarkable we hope, rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society, manners and sentiments, and every day life, piquant essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit and humor, fashion and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literature. It will seek enlivening as well as improving. It will seek to be most fastidious—and it will ever feel its duty to be, to "turn the sunny side of things to human eyes."

The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large octavo super-royal pages, with double columns and enclosed in a neat and ornamental cover. It will form at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.

The very low price at which it will be issued renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country, considering the cost and beauty of its

and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving the paper from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street, 3d free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be franked by Postmasters. Agents, carriers, newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms. The cash system will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.

Such Editors as copy the above will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper and resuming the exchange, which was interrupted through my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control.

$500 in PRIZES for Literary Contributions!

The PARAGON of NEWSPAPERS!

The Original Dollar Weekly!

The Cheapest, Neatest, and Most Popular Family Newspaper ever Published in Philadelphia.

Alexander's Express Messenger

Is universally known in every section of the U. States as the Original and Only Successful Dollar Newspaper established here or elsewhere. It contains all the advantages and objects of a Literary, Scientific, Moral, Mercantile and Agricultural Journal; and the publisher deems it unnecessary at this time, to go into a lengthened recital of its numerous peculiar and popular characteristics which have so extensively recommended it to the Family Circle in Philadelphia, and throughout the State of Pennsylvania, and every other State of the Union. Its course has always been Neutral in Politics, and free from Sectarianism in Religion, and whether considered in reference to the Richly Varied and Valuable contents of its columns, so expressly adapted to the Wants of all Classes, or to moral influence in advocating the interests of the rising generation, it will be conceded on all hands that it is the Cheapest and Best, and Most deserving Popular Encouragement and Support of any of its City Weekly contemporaries.

Alexander's Express Messenger

Was established seven years ago by its present proprietor, who projected and founded those successful publications: 'The Saturday Evening Post,' 'Godey's Lady's Book,' 'Graham's Magazine,' 'The Saturday Courier,' and 'The Daily Chronicle.' None of these, however, ever arrived at so great a Popularity and Circulation as has attended the Messenger during the whole period of its existence, fully corroborating the often repeated opinions of all the country editors with whom it has an exchange, that 'The Messenger is the Paragon of the Philadelphia Weekly Press.'

ALEXANDER'S EXPRESS MESSENGER

Furnishes regularly, the Finest and Earliest digested compend of Domestic and Foreign News. As the British steamers a most invariably arrive at the end or beginning of the week, the Messenger, which goes to press on Wednesday, has the Exclusive Advantage of the Intelligence brought by them.

Reports of all the Important Proceedings of Congress, and the different State Legislatures, are fully recorded by regular Correspondents employed for that purpose.

The Literary Contributors to the Messenger, either in Poetry or Prose, are among the ablest and most talented writers in the country. Is there any reason, therefore, that IT should not maintain the enviable reputation of being the Cheapest, most Useful, and Interesting Family Newspaper in the World? The Contents of the Messenger are so selected and arranged that

The Farmer,
The Mechanic,
The Merchant,
The Business Man,
The Man of Science, and the Moralist,

May find in its well-stored columns both Instruction and Entertainment; and as the utmost care is taken to exclude every thing which possibly might offend Decency and Good Taste—Parents can place THIS PAPER in the hands of their Daughters without apprehension for hesitation—which, in the present degenerate condition of a portion of the Public Press, cannot be too highly estimated.

Several Thousand Dollars!

Have already been expended for Suitable Engravings to embellish some of the most striking and deserving articles that have appeared in the Messenger; and arrangements have been made with Eminent Artists, to continue a Series of Subjects of an entirely New and Original character, which, as they are published, will add materially to the elegance and attractiveness of this Journal.

$500! Unrivalled Literary Prizes.

The pursuits of Literature is not more successfully advanced than by inciting the aspirant to renewed exertions in his studies and efforts to arrive at the summit of Fame, the road to reach which has been so often journeyed over, and found so full of obstructions and perplexities, that few have ever arrived at its termination.—The publisher of the Messenger, desirous of REWARDING THE TALENTS of some of his numerous correspondents, and enlisting others who have not yet contributed to the interests of its columns, presents the following LIBERAL INDUCEMENTS AS PRIZES FOR

Original Tales:

For THE BEST TALE, founded on the events of the American Revolution.....$200 00
The Second Best (the subject at the choice of the Author).....$150 00
The Third Best (on the Naval History of the Country).....$100 00
The Fourth Best.....$50 00

All the Tales intended to be offered in competition for the Prizes, must be received by the middle of January, when they will be submitted to the decision of a Committee of Literary Gentlemen, chosen for that purpose, and well known to the reading public. After the Prizes have been awarded, the Publisher will select from the remaining Tales, such as are worthy publication, for each of which, when published, the author shall receive TWENTY DOLLARS! The residue will be returned or disposed of at the option of the persons who sent them.

Premiums for new Subscribers!

The Publisher of the Messenger having received numerous propositions from many of the ENTERPRIZING NEWSPAPER AGENTS throughout the country, is desirous of securing their services to extend the present unrivalled circulation of his POPULAR FAMILY NEWSPAPER, for which purpose he offers them or any other gentlemen disposed to enter on the enterprise, the following liberal and advantageous terms, in forming new clubs for the ensuing year.

For $10 in one remittance, 12 Copies.
" 20 " " " 26 "
" 30 " " " 40 "
" 50 " " " 70 "
" 100 " " " 150 "

The remittances to be made in current Bank notes of the State where the subscribers are obtained, or negotiable drafts would be preferred. The paper will be sent to any part of the Union separately or together; it is to be desired, however, that each of the different clubs shall be as much concentrated as possible.

Agents will please to forward the names and remittances of NEW CLUBS immediately on collecting them, as it is intended to have all the Subscribers furnished with the IMPROVED MESSENGER commencing with the year 1844.

ALEXANDER'S EXPRESS MESSENGER

Is published Punctually every Wednesday Morning, and is printed on beautiful white paper and excellent type; and arrangements have been made for the future to have it forwarded to subscribers, by mail, with the utmost despatch, carefully enveloped in strong wrappers. A FIVE DOLLAR NOTE will procure four copies of the paper for one year. The price to single subscribers (not attached to Clubs) is Two Dollars per annum, or One Dollar for six months, which must invariably be paid in advance.

All orders, postage paid, must be addressed to

CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place,
Philadelphia.

Postmasters are authorized, and generally willing, to forward money to Newspapers free of expense, where the letters are signed by themselves. Persons wishing to transmit, will, therefore, when it can be done, write just what they want the Postmaster to say for them; by so doing he will only have the trouble of signing. Postmasters will take care to endorse their names on the outside also—the word "free" can be written by any one, and is of no use in franking a letter. Unless the Postage is paid, no letters are taken from the Post Office.

A LIBERAL OFFER TO COUNTRY EDITORS!

Every Newspaper Publisher in the United States who will insert the above advertisement two or three times, shall be furnished regularly with the Daily Chronicle for one year, in exchange for theirs, which will afford them the best method of obtaining the earliest intelligence from all parts of the world, to serve to their Patrons. Send paper Marked.
